

supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state-law claims because they arise out of the same circumstances and are based upon a common nucleus of operative fact.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendants because their contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction in order to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny.

4. Venue is properly laid in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(1) and (b)(2), because Defendants reside in and/or conduct business in this judicial district and because a substantial part of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district.

III. Parties

5. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

6. Plaintiff is an adult individual with an address as set forth above.

7. Defendant Pavilion Apartments Penn, LLC (hereinafter "Defendant PAP") is a private company, incorporated in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and functions as an apartment complex in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

8. Defendant PF Holdings, LLC (hereinafter "Defendant PF") is a private company, operating from New Jersey, and it acquires, retains and directly manages assets including but not limited to Defendant PAP.

9. Plaintiff was considered to be a direct employee of Defendant PAP physically. Plaintiff was however considered to be employed functionally for Defendants PAP and PF, he was managed and terminated by Defendant PF management, and Defendant PF management closely supervised, set directives, and oversaw operations of Defendant PAP. Plaintiff's compensation came from Defendant PF's address, but it identified Defendant PAP as his employer. These entities were closely related, overlapped in management, shared resources, and constitute – from a legal standpoint – a joint, single and/or integrated employer of Plaintiff.

10. Defendant Eli Frischman was upon information and belief an employee of Defendant PF who indirectly supervised Plaintiff, oversaw Plaintiff's compensation and other terms and conditions of employment, and who personally terminated Plaintiff from his employment with Defendants.

11. At all times relevant herein, Defendants acted by and through their agents, servants, and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for the benefit of Defendants.

IV. Factual Background

12. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein as if set forth in full.

13. Defendant PF acquired Defendant PAP almost (and approximately) 2 years ago. Defendant PAP at that time and presently consists of more than 290 separate rental units / apartments in a large apartment complex. Defendant PF acquired, oversaw and managed operations within Defendant PAP daily.

14. When Defendant PF acquired Defendant PAP, Defendants acquired Plaintiff from his prior employer at that time (as it did other employees working therein). Plaintiff's payroll, management structure and compensation was changed once the transition and acquisition was finalized.

15. Plaintiff's job title immediately preceding acquisition by Defendants was Maintenance Technician. Two (2) full-time employees held the position of Maintenance Technician prior to the aforesaid acquisition, inclusive of Plaintiff. In addition to 2 Maintenance technicians, there was a maintenance employee referred to as a Service Manager.

16. Even with the aforesaid 3 employees handling maintenance work for over 290 apartments, all 3 employees worked full-time (and overtime) and could barely keep up with all of the maintenance work required to be performed daily.

17. Plaintiff was considered a non-exempt hourly (paid) employee pre-acquisition, and he was properly paid overtime compensation at a rate of time and one half for all hours worked beyond 40 hours per week.

18. Post-acquisition by Defendants, Plaintiff was: (a) given the title of "Service Manager;" (b) converted to a salary; and (c) not paid any compensation for hours worked over 40 at a rate of time and one half (or any overtime compensation).

19. In addition to changing Plaintiff's compensation structure and job title, for the bulk of Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was employed with only 1 Maintenance Technician.

20. While Plaintiff was called a "Service Manager" for Defendant, he

- (a) Did not hire or terminate employees;
- (b) Did not enforce policies, as he himself was never even provided with an employee handbook or policy;
- (c) Did not evaluate, discipline, or give even give raises to anyone as would be typical of management; and
- (d) Did not actually or customarily supervise employees, let alone 2 or more full-time employees (as required by the Executive overtime exemption).

21. Although Defendants changed Plaintiff's job title to Service Manager, Plaintiff continued to perform identical work that he performed as a non-exempt employee Maintenance Technician. He was intentionally misclassified by Defendants to avoid paying overtime.

22. Defendants intentionally ran the 290-plus unit complex in a very shoddy manner, as it often consisted of low-income earners, those on Section-8 government assistance, and people generally of lower financial means (emboldening Defendants to provide a lower standard of care).

23. In doing so, Defendants for example:

- (a) Intentionally understaffed the apartment complex with maintenance people knowing Plaintiff would perform near exclusively maintenance work with only 1 other maintenance technician; and
- (b) Negligently and unlawfully refused to hire vendors and companies with certified plumbers, certified electricians and other specialized and regulated technicians and had Plaintiff performing day-long or week-long projects that were required to be performed by certified contractors (as Plaintiff did not possess such certifications).¹

24. Plaintiff sporadically had to order some needed equipment and supplies once given the title of Service Manager, but his primary duties and 90% - 100% of his time each day and week was spent performing manual labor, general repairs, painting, cleaning, renovating apartments due to tenants moving in and out of the complex (and other similar labor).

25. Plaintiff could not possibly meet any exemptions under state or federal overtime laws, nor could Defendants have properly or reasonably classified Plaintiff as exempt under the "Executive Exemption" merely by referring to him as a "Manager."

26. Plaintiff lived on premises of the apartment complex, and he averaged working minimum 50-70 hours per week. He was required to only document time for Defendants of time he spent during each day working, but he was consistently contacted by Defendants' personnel or tenants for repairs and emergencies at all hours of the day and morning even outside of his regular work shifts (to which Plaintiff responded and handled).

27. During Plaintiff's last approximate 6 months of employment, he had complained multiple times to Defendants' management, including to Defendant Frischman (Regional Property Manager), about working so beyond 40 hours per week and not getting anything towards overtime compensation.

28. No reasonable employer or manager could have reasonably withheld overtime pay to Plaintiff on any actual or perceived lawful basis. Additionally, Plaintiff's complaints about unpaid overtime were ignored. Instead, Plaintiff was given a verbal pat on the back and assured he would get a bonus to make up for all of his overtime hours (a bonus that was never actually paid to Plaintiff). Plaintiff is – without question – entitled to unpaid overtime compensation and liquidated damages.²

29. During the midst of Plaintiff's complaints of unpaid overtime, Plaintiff was also complaining that he was being treated in a hostile work environment by his immediate manager,

² See e.g. Solis v. Min Fang Yang, 345 Fed. Appx. 35 (6th Cir. 2009)(Affirming award of liquidated damages explaining "under the Act, liquidated damages are compensation, not a penalty or punishment, and no special showing is necessary for the awarding of such damages. Rather, they are considered the norm and have even been referred to by this court as mandatory."); Gayle v. Harry's Nurses Registry, Inc., 594 Fed. Appx. 714, 718 (2d Cir. 2014)(Affirming award of liquidated damages explaining there is an automatic "presumption" of liquidated damages and "double damages are the norm, single damages the exception," as the burden to avoid liquidated damages is a "difficult burden."); Haro v. City of Los Angeles, 745 F.3d 1249 (9th Cir. 2014)(Affirming award of liquidated damages explaining they are the "norm" and "mandatory" unless the employer can establish the very "difficult burden" of subjective and objective attempts at FLSA compliance); Chao v. Barbeque Ventures, LLC, 547 F.3d 938, 942 (8th Cir. 2008)(Affirming award of liquidated damages explaining that the employer mistakenly argues its non-compliance was not willful, misunderstanding the high burden to show affirmative steps of attempted compliance and research of the FLSA and separately that its diligence and belief in non-payment of overtime was also objectively reasonable.); Chao v. Hotel Oasis, Inc., 493 F.3d 26 (1st Cir. 2007)(Affirming award of liquidated damages explaining that they will always be considered the "norm" in FLSA cases); Lockwood v. Prince George's County, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 15302 (4th Cir. 2000)(Affirming award of liquidated damages explaining they are the "norm" and that an employer may not take an ostrich-like approach and refuse to research its obligations under the FLSA and to objectively explain why it failed to comply with the FLSA); Uphoff v. Elegant Bath, Ltd., 176 F.3d 399 (7th Cir. 1999)(Reversing the district court for not awarding liquidated damages, as doubling unpaid overtime is the rule, not an exception); Nero v. Industrial Molding Corp., 167 F.3d 921 (5th Cir. 1999)(Affirming award of liquidated damages, as there is a presumption of entitlement to liquidated damages which are the norm).

one Marcella Windle. This work environment was not rectified, and Plaintiff was ultimately terminated in late August 2017 in substantial part for his prior complaints of unpaid overtime compensation.

Count I
Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA")
(Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)
- Against All Defendants -

30. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein as if set forth in full.

31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants, are and continue to be, an "employer" within the meaning of the FLSA.

32. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff was an "employee" within the meaning of the FLSA.

33. The FLSA requires covered employers, such as Defendants, to minimally compensate their "non-exempt" employees, such as Plaintiff, at a rate of 1.5 times the employee's regular rate of pay for each overtime hour that the employee works (i.e. hours in excess of 40 hours in a workweek).

34. At all times during his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was a "non-exempt" employee within the meaning of the FLSA.

35. Defendants knew that Plaintiff was a "non-exempt" employee within the meaning of the FLSA.

36. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff 1.5 times Plaintiff's regular rate of pay for each hour that he worked over 40 each workweek.

37. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff the overtime compensation due him, Defendants violated the FLSA and caused Plaintiff to suffer damages in the form of unpaid overtime compensation.

38. Defendant Frischman is personally liable as he directly failed to properly compensate employees such as Plaintiff.³

Count II
Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA")
(Retaliation)
- Against All Defendants -

39. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

40. Plaintiff expressly complained to Defendants' management, including Defendant Frischman about non-payment of his overtime pay (primarily toward the end of his tenure with Defendants).

41. Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff by requiring him to work under a hostile work environment with his immediate manager Windle, who knowingly attempted to scrutinize and make every aspect of Plaintiff's work environment uncomfortable. The retaliation then extended to Plaintiff's termination from employment as aforesaid. Plaintiff was specifically terminated by Defendant Frischman to whom he had made complaints of unpaid overtime.

42. Any retaliation against Plaintiff for exercising his statutory rights to complain of unpaid overtime was per se unlawful. See Kasten v. Saint-Gobain Performance Plastics Corp., 563 U.S. 1, 131 S. Ct. 1325, 179 L. Ed. 2d 379 (2011)(it is illegal under the FLSA to retaliate against an employee for verbal or written concerns of unpaid overtime compensation).

³ "[A]n individual is subject to liability when he or she exercises supervisory authority over the complaining employee and was responsible in whole or part for the alleged violation while acting in the employer's interest." White v. Eberle & Bci Servs., 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 7542 (D.N.J. 2013); see also Narodetsky v. Cardone Indus., Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16133, 2010 WL 678288 (E.D. Pa. 2010)(management may be individually liable under the FLSA for involvement in payroll and/or adverse actions with employment).

Count III
Violations of the Pennsylvania Wage and Collection Law(s)
(Unpaid Wages)
- Against All Defendants -

43. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

44. Plaintiff was specifically informed he was entitled to 2 weeks of vacation by Defendants. Plaintiff properly accrued such vacation time, but he worked so much and never took vacation.

45. Upon termination from employment, Defendants refused to pay Plaintiff for his accrued vacation time as aforesaid.

46. These actions as aforesaid constitute violations of the Pennsylvania Wage and Collection Law(s).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an Order providing that:

A. Defendants are to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendants' illegal actions, including but not limited to past lost earnings and any other owed compensation. Plaintiff should be accorded those benefits illegally withheld from the date he first suffered legal violations at the hands of Defendants until the date of verdict;

B. Plaintiff is to be awarded liquidated or punitive damages, as permitted by applicable law, in an amount determined by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendants for their willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct and to deter Defendants or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

C. Plaintiff is to be accorded any and all other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper and appropriate, including but not limited to, emotional distress and/or pain and suffering damages (where legally permitted);

D. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable legal fees as provided by applicable federal and state law;

E. Any verdict in favor of Plaintiff is to be molded by the Court to maximize the financial recovery available to the Plaintiff in light of the caps on certain damages set forth in applicable federal law; and

F. Plaintiff's claims are to receive trial by jury to the extent allowed by applicable law. Plaintiff has also endorsed this demand on the caption of this Complaint in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b).
